

Marian Frear

I was raised in the Episcopal Church, and after a twelve year hiatus, started coming to St. Michael's in 1999. I've been involved as a lector, Eucharistic visitor, choir member and most recently, Vestry member. I think our parish offers a deeply committed and contemplative spiritual community that can be of great service.

I look forward to the opportunity to represent my spiritual home in the diocese.

